A HOUSE RESOLUTION recognizing the twenty-fifth anniversary of Habitat for Humanity and declaring, that in honor of the contributions Habitat for Humanity has made to Indiana, the House of Representatives will build a home in August, 2001.

Whereas, Habitat for Humanity, a nonprofit homebuilding group with affiliates in 76 countries, has built homes for over 1,100 Hoosier families;

Whereas, The Indiana House of Representatives is committed to building a home in the 700 block of Edgemont in Indianapolis as part of a twenty-five home building project in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Habitat for Humanity;

Whereas, Habitat for Humanity volunteers provide an opportunity for home ownership for people who would not otherwise own a home;

Whereas, the home built by volunteers from the Indiana

House of Representatives at the 700 block of Edgemont will satisfy the dream of home ownership for a Hoosier family. Therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. That Habitat for Humanity is recognized upon the occasion of its twenty-fifth anniversary and honored for its contributions to the State of Indiana.

SECTION 2. In honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Habitat for Humanity, the Indiana House of Representatives will build a home in August, 2001 in the 700 block of Edgemont.
